

Bright Minds, Bright Future.

To get some ideas for summer reading titles, look below at the suggested list. You may borrow these books from local libraries or purchase them from retail stores.

The list below features books that are about summer, camp, vacations and trips. It is suggested that you read at least five (5) books. You are welcome to read books other than those listed. Don't forget to read non-fiction books, too! Summer is a great time to read about astronomy, art, plants, folktales, animals, etc.
