

To get some ideas for summer reading titles, look below at the suggested list. You may borrow these books from local libraries or purchase them from retail stores. This list of mysteries was created to provide you with reading that you might find appealing. However, you are welcome to read books other than mysteries and other than those listed below. Don't forget to read non-fiction books, too! Summer is a great time to read about astronomy, plants, animals, sports, jokes, crafts, biographies and history. It is suggested that you read 5 books, but you can read as many as you would like.

SOME SUGGESTED MYSTERIES:

Diary of a Wimpy Kid Author: Kinney, Jeff

The Amber Brown series Author: Danziger, Paula

The Little House series: Author: Wilder, Laura Ingalls

The Wayside School stories Author: Sachar, Lois

Encyclopedia Brown series Author: Sobol, Donald

The Ramona and Henry Huggins series
Author: Cleary, Beverly

Charlotte's Web, Stuart Little Author: White, E.B

Despereaux Author: DiCamillo, Kate